

Patra's International Festival of Film & Culture activities expands into a variety of arts such as theatre, photography, poetry and visual creation through the participation of an increasing number of individuals and organized communities of the city associated with arts and culture.

The festival is open to all people, from wherever they are in the world to show their work, express themselves and communicate their thoughts and feelings when on the same time, the cinema-going public have the chance to get to know different cultures, ideas, opinions from and to, people from all over the world. It organizes projections of awarded films, of the International Panorama of Independent Film and Video Makers, in the wider Greek region by cultural associations, cinema clubs, etc.

From the 1st to the 11th Festival, in total, 1656 films have already been projected. The festival takes place at INTEAL, a contemporary cultural monument and the most classic cinema of Patra.

Source: www.independent.gr