The "Cultural Summer" and "Akrata Carnival" with the game of **"
Hidden treasure"
, ar the most important institutions, revived every year at Akrata, while the Institute of Manos Hatzidakis
-
Nikos Gatsos
contributes significantly to the cultural life of the region with events and other activities.

The "Cultural Summer" is an institution that was originally initiated by "Anagennisi" society of Akrata. Then it was embraced by the city through the Cultural Institute of the city. In cooperation with cultural associations and institutions, the events take place in every corner of the municipality.

The events held each year having as basis Akrata, but all the surrounding areas also participate, and concern theater, book reviews, lectures, debates, exhibitions, paintings and folk art. Even music and dance performances, concerts, sporting events, etc.

The events take place in the building of Anagennisi association, at beach of Krathis, at Platanos and the premises of schools.

Source: www.akrata.gr