

Six days of traditional cultural events organized by the Municipality Vrachneikon each August, while on July theatrical performances are given by the remarkable theatrical classes of the municipality, at the atrium of the magnificently restored building of the railway station.

Messatida is famous for its big two-day wine festival on September, entitled "Wine Routes" organized in Kallithea (region with a tradition in wine culture), with free wine, concerts and dance bands, and photography exhibitions.