

At village Kastria of Kleitoria municipality where there is the Cave of Lakes, a museum with findings from the exploration of the cave operates, while at Kleitoria there is a Folk Museum, a project of the local cultural association founded in 1989. It presents the traditional agricultural and farm equipment, traditional weavings, local costumes, embroidery, traditional utensils and more.

